From: John White
To: Ken White
Date: July 20th
Subject: How are you?

Dear Ken,
Are you enjoying your summer vacation? Is it hot there? It's not hot in Vancouver this year. The weather is always cloudy, so Grandma's tomatoes are small. Grandma and I want to see you.
Write soon,
Grandpa.

From: Ken White
To: John White
Date: August 3rd
Subject: My summer

Hi Grandpa and Grandma,
I'm sorry that I couldn't write soon. My summer is going well. The weather is hot and humid in Tokyo. Last summer, I didn't go swimming because a typhoon hit Tokyo. But this summer, I can go swimming. Yesterday, my friend Matt, his family, and I went fishing. Matt and I couldn't catch any fish, but his brother caught a big one. We ate it for lunch. I couldn't see you, but I will visit you during the Christmas holidays.
Love,
Ken.

*Sharks are a kind of fish that live in every ocean around the world. Scientists think that sharks lived 200 million years before the *dinosaurs. That is a long time ago!

There are many different types of sharks. For example, there are *hammerhead sharks, tiger sharks and great white sharks. Sharks come in all different sizes, the whale shark is the biggest fish in the world. It can grow to be 45 *feet long. Other sharks can be small, like the *leopard shark. The smallest sharks are only seven *inches long.

Some sharks are born live but others *hatch from an egg. Baby sharks are called pups. A mother shark doesn't take care of her babies after they are born, they have to take care of themselves.

Sharks are *deadly *predators, which means that they *hunt and eat other animals like fish, *seals and even other sharks. Great white sharks eat five hundred *pounds of meat every day! Sharks catch their *prey with their sharp teeth. When sharks lose teeth, new ones grow. They have at least four *layers of *pointy teeth. Sharks have a good sense of smell and can follow the smell of blood from up to a *mile away. Sharks can see about as well as people. They hear sounds underwater from miles away. The only animals that hunt sharks are other sharks and people. People catch sharks for food. The best place to see a shark is at an *aquarium. You might even be able to pet one!
